Tourism trade ready for summer boom

BRIDPORT'S booming tourism industry is preparing for another record-breaking summer, with thousands of holidaymakers expected to visit the area over the next three months.

by Jack Dixon

Local businesses are set to cash in on a scorching summer season as tourists head to the Dorset coast in their droves.

According to leading holiday property specialists, record numbers will head to West Dorset following a surge in bookings for extended breaks.

Industry leaders say they have been "staggered" by the increase in online searches for getaways in the area, with bookings up across the county by almost a quarter on last year.

Coastal hotspots including West Bay are proving as successful as ever, according to one agency, which is reporting a 134 per cent increase in online visits to its seaside destinations in Dorset.

Traders are now ready to make the most of the summer, as cafes, restaurants, bars and hotels prepare for a rush of visitors.

"Last year was extremely busy and I'm expecting this summer to be even better for us," said Mike Ackerman, manager at the Anchors Aweigh restaurant in West Bay.

"We often hear from people who are visiting for the day after seeing West Bay in Harbour Lights and, of course, Broadchurch. And when the weather is gorgeous, as it has been recently, it always helps tourism."

Jaki Miller, manager at Ellipse, added: "We've had people come in and say they love West Bay so much that they were calling their bosses from the restaurant to book some more time off."

The area's starring role in a series of recent on-screen success stories has worked wonders for the area, says James Morris, managing director of holiday property specialists holidaycottages.co.uk.

"With so many of the backdrops of TV and film currently being sought out, visitors can't go too far without spotting a landscape they will recognise," he said.

"The area has so much to explore and we are so pleased to see it finally getting the recognition it deserves."

Freshwater Holiday Park's Scott Condliffe said he was anticipating a significant boost for most businesses this year.

"We have seen a strong start to the tourism season,

STILLWATERS is a new therapy centre, based at The Elms, Charmouth, focussing on psychological wellbeing. The centre is run by founder, Deborah Gildersleeves, who is a fully qualified, registered and insured psychotherapist and hypnotherapist.

Deborah has over 20 years' experience working with the military community and can help clients with a wide range of psychological issues - everything from relationship difficulties, bereavement, anxiety and depression to low self-esteem and phobias.

● TELL us more about the therapy available at Stillwaters...

For the past eight years, I've been working with military casualties and I've gained specialist knowledge and experience in the field of post traumatic stress and issues around acquired disability. This has enabled me to help people who may be struggling to cope with traumatic events, or are dealing with a disability following an accident or incident.

Stillwaters Therapy Centre also offers a range of complementary therapies and workshops alongside psychotherapy and counselling to enable people to heal their mind, body and soul.

● HOW can therapy help?

Everyone will experience things at some time in their lives which will leave them feeling confused or emotionally vulnerable. Counselling offers a safe and secure environment to explore those thoughts and feelings. It can help you make sense of what has happened so you can cope better and go forward.

● WHY is your wellbeing so important?

Psychological and physical wellbeing are important as if we're feeling okay within ourselves, we are able to form healthy relationships, make decisions which are good for us and realise our own potential.

● WHAT type of treatment is available?

A counselling relationship is very much an equal partnership and, as such, the number of sessions will depend upon the issues being experienced. It's essential that someone feels they have time to build trust and rapport with their therapist. You are then able to explore where the therapeutic pathway is taking you and when you both feel the work is complete.

I also believe in being as creative as possible. One size does not fit all, so I'll tailor the therapeutic approach to fit with the client.

I can offer one-to-one or couple counselling sessions, whatever works best for you. And group workshops and support groups are being planned for the near future.

● WHAT about costs?

My psychotherapy and counselling costs around £40 per hour. Other individual therapists at Stillwaters will be able to discuss their own rates with you.

Counselling and complementary therapy rooms are also available for therapists to hire from £35 per half day and the meeting room rate is negotiable, subject to availability.

● WHY did you choose Charmouth?

I'm often asked why I've set up the therapy centre in Charmouth. I've loved West Dorset and its natural beauty for as long as I can remember, and I've observed how many of my clients were able to find solace in being by the coast - so it seemed to be a natural choice. The opportunity to take clients out onto the beach to teach them mindfulness strategies to cope with their symptoms is very special and unique.

● HOW do you keep yourself well and healthy?

I take full advantage of living and working in such a beautiful part of the UK. And having just adopted a 'miniature' great dane called Lunar, I'm walking the cliffs at least twice a day. It's a perfect way to unwind and meet lots of people.

● HOW can I get in touch?

For more information or appointments, please contact Stillwaters Therapy Centre, The Elms, Charmouth, Dorset DT6 6LN. Call 01297 561463 or 07585 173854.

Plan to restore derelict toilets

by Jack Dixon
jack@pemedia.co.uk

A DERELICT toilet block in Bridport town centre is set to be restored for public use after more than three years out of order.

Plans have been submitted to construct an improved toilet block in the East Street car park, alongside three new homes.

Community champion Caroline Parkins, owner of the nearby Leakers Bakery, is pressing ahead with her determined effort to restore the public conveniences, after battling developers to buy the site for more than £100,000.

The neglected toilets have been in a state of disrepair for many months but Mrs Parkins is striving to secure their future.

She fought with commercial developers to purchase the block at auction in October 2013 – shelling out more than triple the guide price to buy the site.

And proposals have now been lodged with the district council to demolish the derelict block and build a brand new facility.

Mrs Parkins said the plans would help to maintain Bridport's vital tourist economy, particularly during the summer months.

"The East Street car park is the first place visitors from an easterly direction find when they arrive in the town," she said.

"The nearest toilets are some way away. We have a larger than average retired population in Bridport and a large number of visitors of all ages throughout the year. These visitors play an important part in the economy of Bridport."

If the plans are approved, three new homes would also be built alongside the new toilets.

The planning application details proposals for two separate two-bedroom houses and another one-bedroom property on the site.

Working closely with the Bridport Community Land Trust, Mrs Parkins and architect Robert Wheelwright hope that the sales of the three homes will help to finance the construction of the new toilets.

She added: "In order to stop the potential commercially driven development of the site, it was necessary to purchase the land at auction.

"It was initially hoped that all three houses in this scheme could be sold at 80 per cent of the market value but it is unlikely that the costs will add up. At this stage I cannot say more about the financing except that it is my hope that there will be enough 'change' from the sales to allow an endowment to be settled on the toilets to enable their running and maintenance to be taken over by Bridport Town Council."

The plans have been well-supported by local groups and organisations, with backing from both town and district councillors, the Age UK charity and the Bridport Older People's Forum.

Several local businesses have also leant their support to the scheme, offering goods and services at cost price to help the project become a reality.

"As might be expected, there has been wide support from the Bridport community," added Mrs Parkins.

"Many local people have written and been vocal in their support of this community-led project.

"It has never been my object to be a property developer – my object was and remains to rebuild the toilets so that they may be a community asset for the town of Bridport."

Hospital protesters in Bridport

CAMPAIGNERS fighting for the future of Dorset County Hospital's Special Care Baby Unit and Kingfisher Ward were out in force in Bridport on Saturday, writes LOTTIE WELCH.

Members of the community have come together to launch a petition to ensure the services are not affected by proposed changes outlined by senior GPs from the Dorset Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG).

Ros Kayes, town and district councillor for Bridport, was among those collecting signatures in Bucky Doo Square at the weekend.

She said: "People are really stupefied as to how this proposal has even been put forward.

"It is really important that we get the petition out and about in every town in the west of the county.

"There is a fantastic social media campaign, but grans and granddads want to sign the petition too."

Cllr Kayes said she was particularly concerned about possible limits on the hours of consultant cover provided at the hospital's labour unit.

She added: "Campaigners want to see these changes taken out of the proposals going forward to the consultation in the summer and I am with them all the way."

Nicky Dear helped set up the group's Facebook page and is calling on as many people as possible to sign the petition.

She said: "Concerned parents will feel isolated without the immediate support of family and friends around them if they have to travel to Bournemouth [for hospital services].

"We are hoping to get thousands of signatures through petitions posted around Dorset and volunteers going out."

Final decisions about the future of healthcare in Dorset will be made in spring 2016, following a full public consultation this summer.

The CCG stresses that no final decisions have yet been made about the future of children's services in Dorset.

In a recent statement, Dr Forbes Watson, chair of the CCG, said: "Currently no decisions about the paediatric proposals have been made and there has been no decision taken to close the Kingfisher Ward at Dorset County Hospital.

"Our discussions are ongoing and our ambition is that the majority of children who are treated at DCH now would continue to be treated there under any future service proposal."

A mass march against the proposals has been organised in Dorchester this Saturday (June 13th).

with a busy half-term followed by plenty of sunny weather," he said.

"It is too early to be sure about the prospects for the whole year but certainly early indications are very positive with a definite tourism boost due to the 'Broadchurch effect'."

Mr Condliffe, who is also chairman of the Bridport & District Tourism Association, urged council chiefs to help local traders by finding alternative parking options for the busy summer ahead.

He added: "Our problem now is coping with increasing visitor numbers and we hope West Dorset District Council will consider ways to accommodate more cars in Bridport and West Bay during the busy periods."

Tourist information centres across West Dorset face axe

WEST Dorset's four tourist information centres could soon be axed as part of a sweeping review of the service.

Council leaders are considering major changes to the way information services are provided as authorities feel the squeeze of local government funding cuts.

Four centres – in Bridport, Dorchester, Lyme Regis and Sherborne – could all face closure, with decisions about their future operation likely to be made early next year.

West Dorset District Council, which currently runs all four of the TICs, has not announced any closures as yet, but a public consultation has now been launched to gauge the response of residents.

In a statement issued this week, West Dorset District Council Leader Anthony Alford conceded that some TIC services "will stop" as a result of the review process.

He said: "The ongoing financial challenge for the public sector means that the district council will have around £9million less per year to provide services in 2020 compared to what it had in 2010.

"There will be tough decisions – some services will stop, others will have to be delivered in significantly different ways."

The four TICs currently provide free information to support the local tourism industry, offering details about transport bookings and car parking permits.

Staff at the Bridport and Lyme Regis branches also provide a 'box office' service selling tickets for events at the Electric Palace and Marine Theatre respectively.

In the last financial year, more than 400,000 customers visited the four centres and members of staff dealt with over 30,000 enquiries by letter, phone and email.

It cost the council a net total of £291,000 to run the service during this period but major changes are likely to be introduced next year in an effort to cut costs.

WDDC is now launching a survey to collect the views of residents – including customers and local businesses who benefit from the TICs.

Councillor Alford added: "Tourism is very important to West Dorset and I encourage residents and visitors to fill in the survey to ensure we collect as many views as possible to help us design the future of the tourism information service.

"All service reviews will take account of the views of users and our key partners. We are committed to keeping local people informed as they progress."

Copies of the survey are available from the four TICs or online at www.dorsetforyou.com/consultation and must be completed by Friday, July 3rd at 4.30pm.

Drop-in meetings are taking place in the centres between 3pm and 7pm on Wednesday, June 10th (Dorchester), Thursday, June 11th (Sherborne), Tuesday, June 16th (Bridport) and Thursday, June 18th (Lyme Regis).

What about 'Moving On'?

I READ with interest your front page article in last week's View from Bridport concerning the Harmony Drop-in Centre and I would like to draw your readers' attention to the following.

'Moving On', a local registered charity, has provided a drop-in facility and social club for people recovering from mental illness in Bridport for over nine years.

It employs a part-time facilitator and, until recently, was affiliated to the Dorset Mental Health Forum, which was instrumental in establishing us in the town.

The group meets regularly on Tuesdays and, when funds permit, runs activities on other days of the week.

We have also recently opened a drop-in at the Hub in Lyme Regis on Fridays with the support of the town's Development Trust.

It is, therefore, not accurate to say no other facility exists in Bridport.

We had an understanding with Harmony when they started that they would not open on Tuesdays, so our membership was very surprised to hear that they were planning sessions five days each week.

Our management team and membership does find it somewhat strange that the NHS closed down the Hughes Unit Ward at Bridport Hospital and then funded a drop-in centre for two years in the town at a considerable cost and which, to a large extent, duplicates the work of a local charity.

One might feel that public money might have been better spent in keeping the Hughes Unit beds open and working with a local charity that has the support of the community.

Over the next month Moving On will be reviewing the need for the facility it provides in Bridport and this will be discussed at our AGM in August.

PETER TOBUTT,
Chairman,
Moving On

Tired of being seen as a menace

I OFFER the following in response to the submission by Mary Hall in last week's edition.

The situation described by Mary Hall in your View Letters of June 3rd is indeed worthy; I well know the hazards of relying on crutches in a crowded place, and know very well that scooters are indeed menacing.

The idea of hearing and eyesight tests prior to owning/renting such a machine is admirable, and should be pursued.

It is also time that manufacturers provided that all important emergency brake – surely the cost to them would be minimal.

However, since she was prompted by my own letter reporting aggression to me as a scooter-use, I wish to assure her that both my sight and hearing are in excellent order, and I do have an audible device on the vehicle, sounding rather like the dustcart going backwards, but nobody seems to hear it.

Also having been an international driver for some 65 years, I am used to negotiating all manner of obstacles.

But, she can be assured that she is less likely to encounter me from now on, as I tire of being considered the unseen and silent menace on the town's walkways.

So, my opportunities of having that little touch of freedom are waning.

BRIAN G. BECKWITH,
Bridport

Man arrested for cannabis possession

A MAN has been arrested for possession of cannabis after he was searched in a Bridport park.

Officers apprehended the 26-year-old in St Mary's playing field on Saturday (June 6th) after receiving a call from a member of the public concerned that he was behaving suspiciously.

Police stopped the man in the park and discovered cannabis, a class B drug, in his possession.

False alarm for fire crew

FIRE Service chiefs have issued a warning to residents after a bonfire in Bridport sparked a false alarm.

A crew from Beaminster was called to an unspecified property in Bridport on Sunday (June 7th) following reports of an outdoor fire.

An emergency team arrived shortly before 3:30pm only to discover a "controlled burn".

Officers at the Dorset Fire and Rescue Service have since reissued advice urging residents to inform all their neighbours before starting a private bonfire and to make sure it remains supervised at all times.

Bridport's beer bonanza is back

FOLLOWING last year's successful weekend of sun, cider and ale, Bridport Round Table are looking to provide the town with yet another amazing party atmosphere as part of the grand finale to Bridport Food Festival.

Last year the group raised just over £13,000, which has been distributed to local charities, community groups and good causes and this year they hope to top it.

Pete Dacey, a member of the Bridport Round Table and last year's chairman, said: "This year we have upped the beer count to 70 offerings and will be providing a very strong supporting role with 28 ciders.

"We will also be including three craft lagers as part of the magnificent 70, which is a first for the beer festival.

"There will be music throughout the two sessions with Friday night's band, The Renegades, once again returning to get the party started.

"Saturday's musical melange will be made with the ever popular Elijah Wolf Open Mic session from 12noon to 4pm, which will clearly demonstrate that Bridport's got talent."

This will be followed by Galaxy Discos to keep the party atmosphere going until 8:30pm when the Dave Griff Trouser Band, who perform for the first time at the event, will draw proceedings to a close."

Bridport Beer Festival takes place in Asker Meadows this Friday (June 12th) from 6:30pm–11pm and Saturday (June 13th) from 11am–11pm.

Chairman Gary Hedges said: "We would like to say a huge thank you to all of our fantastic sponsors and supporters, who once again have dug deep to help us be able to put on Bridport's biggest party.

"We look forward to meeting them and thanking them in person at the special sponsors' hour."

Search for new town crier is over

NEW town crier John Collingwood auditions for the role

DEPUTY town crier Ron Lee

by Lottie Welch
lottie@pemedia.co.uk

IT WAS a battle of the cries in Bridport last weekend as the search for the town's new crier came to an end, with John Collingwood coming out on top.

Auditions took place in Bucky Doo Square on Saturday (June 6th) in which two hopefuls went head to head, cheered on by crowds of shoppers.

John Collingwood and Ron Lee both made cries they had written about the upcoming Bridport Food Festival and different historical local events.

But before they took to centre stage, Alistair Chisholm, Dorchester's very own town crier of 20 years, made a benchmark cry to help the judging panel of town councillors know what to look out for.

And it was John Collingwood who was ultimately named winner with Ron Lee acting as deputy.

Alistair Chisholm said: "Both of them had great elements to be a town crier and it is a good thing to have a town crier and a deputy.

"They both seem very committed to Bridport and make themselves available which is very good.

"They need to commit to the community which is very important and we have that in both of these chaps, and they conduct themselves in a suitable manner."

Bridport Mayor Councillor Sandra Brown added: "It was very difficult to chose between them and I think they both did extremely well."

Weekend of fun in Broadwindsor

by Lottie Welch
lottie@pemedia.co.uk

BROADWINDSOR villagers and visitors enjoyed a weekend of summer holiday fun at the annual Broadwindsor Fun Days.

The weekend of activities – organised by Broadwindsor Jubilee Group – started with over 100 people enjoying a big breakfast on Saturday at the Comrades Hall, followed by cream teas at Broadwindsor House in the afternoon and a sing-a-long Grease movie in the evening.

The fun day on Sunday (June 7th) began with the 'Parade of Shields' through the village – led by donkeys from Donkey Walking in Dorset and Sam Trott, Broadwindsor Royal British Legion standard barer – to Bernards' Place where the Reverend Jo Neary officially opened the fete.

The main event included stalls of plants, cake, bric-a-brac and books with dozens of games for both children and adults.

This year, the theme running through the fun weekend was 'Summer Holiday' and scarecrows were displayed throughout the town depicting typical summer scenes.

Margery Hookings, one of the Broadwindsor Jubilee Group's secretaries, said: "From the big breakfast on Saturday, where we served 110 people in two hours, to the Grease sing-along movie in the evening, the events got off to a great start.

"It was a lovely feel-good atmosphere up on the green, with people entering into the spirit of the summer holiday theme.

"People of all ages really enjoyed the event and we are so grateful to our army of helpers who made the weekend possible.

"Broadwindsor has a great community spirit, with people coming up with novel ideas to have fun all through the year."

Money raised from the event will be split between organisations in Broadwindsor at a thank you party for all the helpers.

BRIDPORT formally welcomed its new mayor at a traditional town hall ceremony last week.

Councillor Sandra Brown said she was looking forward to a busy year ahead, after being formally installed as first citizen.

"I am somewhat bemused and surprised to find myself here tonight," she said.

"I did not expect this honour to come my way again."

Cllr Brown, who has held the office on three previous occasions, most recently in 2005, praised outgoing mayor Councillor Maggie Ray for her efforts over the last two years and welcomed Councillor Geoffrey Ackerman as her deputy.

During the ceremony on Thursday evening, Cllr Brown named her chosen charities – the Royal National Institute of Blind People and the Richard Ely Trust for Young Musicians – and spoke of her optimism about the year ahead.

She said: "Being mayor is a very enjoyable occasion but it's also very hard work with few days off for yourself.

"It's going to be a very busy year overseeing the prosperity of our town.

"My last three years as mayor were very good in different ways and I have many lovely memories to look back on.

"We are so lucky to live in such a beautiful part of England and I think we can be proud of our town, but we must always remember that without our dedicated staff we could not achieve what we do."

Alongside the ceremonial roles of mayor and deputy, Councillor Sarah Williams will continue to steer the town council for a third year as leader.

She said: "The town council will continue to work in partnership with many of the organisations for Bridport and West Bay to help conserve the projects in the area.

"The council continues to support the Citizens Advice Bureau, the museum, the leisure centre and arts centre, and we look forward to a good market, which does so much for the town and wider area and helps us support so many of these worthy organisations."

She added: "There will be challenges over the coming year with continued levels of pressure on local government.

"To ensure the delivery of projects and services, the town council will continue to build on our strong relationship with local community organisations and agencies."

Bridport Food Festival kicks off

by Lottie Welch
lottie@pemedia.co.uk

ABOVE: Katharine Wright and Maria McLeish, of Dorset Food and Drink, offer samples and information from the county's best food and drink producers

BRIDPORT's anticipated celebration of all things culinary got off to a start last weekend as activities get underway for the week long festival.

Washingpool Farm opened their doors to the public for Open Farm Sunday to show visitors life on a working farm and of course samples of their home grown food.

Sheep shearing, tractor and trailer rides and food tasting were just some of the activities put on for guests.

And this week, the events keep on coming with a Dorset night in the ballroom at the Bull Hotel will include talks and tasters from the finest drink suppliers in the county.

Tickets cost £12 and it starts at 7.30pm.

There will also be a Screen Bites food film, Chocoholics Delight, at Bridport Arts Centre featuring an evening dedicated to chocolate with tastings and a documentary about Caribbean chocolate cooperative, Nothing Like Chocolate.

Tickets cost £7 or £5 for concessions and starts at 7.30pm.

On Friday, staff and pupils of St Mary's Primary School are opening their edible garden to the community to come and meet the team behind it.

The garden will be open from 3.30pm to 5.30pm.

And one of the biggest events in the Bridport calendar, the Round Table Beer Festival, will take over the Asker Meadows on Friday and Saturday night.

The main event, rounding of the week long festival of food, takes place on Saturday, June 13th, at Asker Meadows with over 30 food and drink stalls, cookery demonstrations, a children's marquee and competitions.

Colfox students test photography skills

STUDENTS at The Sir John Colfox Academy have been picking the brain of local professional photographer Faye Neal, as part of a school project.

Members of the Talented, Able, Ambitious and Gifted group (TAAG) spent a day out and about in Bridport and West Bay, under the watchful eye of Faye, taking photographs showing what the town means to them.

Faye Neal specialises in equestrian photography so the students also visited the Chard Equestrian Centre to try their hand at capturing the perfect photo of horses being put through their paces.

Andy David, a teacher at The Sir John Colfox Academy who founded TAAG, said: "I thought it was incredibly successful.

"We have spent a lot of time in school learning about how to take photos but I knew it was important to actually get out and let the students put what they have learnt into practice.

"I am really grateful to Faye for taking the time out to spend the day with us and the students really enjoyed listening to what she had to say and trying to implement her advice.

"I think they all did a great job and took superb photos based on what Bridport means to them."

TAAG was set up at the school two years ago for Year Seven students who want to take part in extra activities, including projects in humanities, photography, English, art, music, sport and drama.

The photos will be part of a presentation at the end of year TAAG celebration with parents, staff and governors.

Parent support magazine needs help

A LOCAL parent support charity is under threat of reducing or losing the circulation of its magazine offering important information and advice to new mums.

Bridport and Lyme Regis National Childbirth Trust (NCT) produces the publication Small Talk three times a year, which includes first hand advice on a range of issues, real life stories and information on local services.

And with a decline in businesses advertising in the magazine, members of the group are worried it will have to be reduced or stopped.

Volunteer editor Anna Foxx-Neal said: "Small Talk is frequently described as a lifeline for new parents who are looking for support networks, or new friends, or who need information and advice.

"As well as a comprehensive guide to what is on across the area, we always include real life, first-hand articles written by mums.

"As a support charity, we see our magazine as our most powerful tool to reach out to people and to share information, advice and a genuinely welcoming community.

"If we have to start making cuts, we will immediately find that there are people who need our support who we can no longer reach, especially because not everybody has regular access to email or social media."

The publication has received recognition from the national NCT as being an example of best practice and effectiveness and surveys have shown that it is widely read and trusted by new parents and mums to be.

The newsletter has been commended by local health professionals as being one of the best pieces of information they have to hand out to new mums and is funded through selling advertising space.

Alexandra O'Dwyer, Volunteer branch treasurer, said: "Small Talk is the jewel in the crown of our NCT branch and recent surveys of our members have told us that it is seen as a hugely valuable and unique resource.

"Each issue costs us over £400 to produce and we are reliant upon funding those costs from local businesses who pay a competitive rate to advertise in a publication which is proven to be read from cover to cover and is highly trusted by local families.

"We are forced to look at cutting the number of magazines we produce, meaning we will reach and help less people.

"We are also considering reducing the number of pages of each edition, but this means we won't be able to supply as much information or run the in-depth articles which we know can be hugely beneficial to parents who are struggling."

If any local businesses would like to find out more about how they can advertise in the next edition of Small Talk, where advertisements start from as little as £18, contact Anna Foxx-Neal at advertising.bridport@nct.org.uk

ANNA Foxx-Neal, volunteer editor of the Bridport and Lyme Regis National Childbirth Trust's (NCT) 'Small Talk' newsletter, is urging businesses to advertise in the publication or it could be reduced or stopped altogether

Sign up for Bridport Business Showcase

LOCAL businesses are being encouraged to promote what they do to the community and other firms by taking part in the Bridport Business Showcase.

Hosted by Bridport Chamber of Trade and Commerce, the event will be an opportunity for businesses in and around the town to promote what they do and network with other business owners.

It is open to members and non-members of Bridport Chamber and with 26 stands available, businesses are being urged to sign up.

Dorchester Hearing Centre

How's your hearing

Currently one in six people in the UK – an estimated 10 million people – have some form of hearing loss. Local Specialists, The Dorchester Hearing Centre have been raising awareness and understanding of the issues surrounding hearing for over 50 years now.

Jonathan Ormerod, hearing aid audiologist, and his team at the Centre are proud to be promoting this important healthcare issue. 'Most people will go and see a dentist or an optician, but don't think about their hearing in the same way. We are encouraging people to come and have a free hearing test.'

He continues, 'Often people think if they had a hearing impairment they would know. However, hearing loss happens gradually and the signs are subtle. Our ability to adapt to those small changes makes it difficult to accurately self-diagnose and other people may notice it first. It is easy to blame others for not speaking clearly or mumbling. But undiagnosed hearing loss can cause frustration and withdrawal, often placing an undue strain on relationships.'

'Patients are often surprised when I show them hearing aids. They remember their granny wearing a 'large beige banana' behind her ear. Advances in technology have made hearing aids remarkably discreet. There are even hearing aids now that you can control with your mobile phone.'

If you think your hearing is not what it once was or you know someone who does not hear so well, the Dorchester Hearing Centre are offering free initial consultations and hearing tests. Call them on 0105 260153 to book your priority appointment.

Professional footballer returns to school to inspire students

STUDENTS at the Sir John Colfox Academy were treated to a visit from a Premiership footballer last week.

Dominic Gape, who was at the school from 2000 and now plays professionally for Southampton, took time out at the end of season to give some valuable advice to budding football stars.

During the visit, he reflected on his time at the school and how his grades always came first.

He talked about life at Southampton FC where he is part of the Under 21 team that won the Premier League Trophy.

Dominic made his first team debut this season and, most importantly, he is now healthy following a string of unfortunate injuries.

Dominic answered questions and gave advice on how to reach the top in whatever the students were interested in.

He said: "Ask yourself this question, 'how bad do I want it?'

"It does not matter what you want to do; business, music or sport, you just have how bad you want it.

"The next question you have to ask yourself is, 'What is going to give me that edge?'

"Lots of people want to reach the top and lots of people are very good at what they do, so what will give you the edge?

"Find out what it is and do it to the best of your ability and you have every chance of succeeding."

Dominic was given a loud round of applause before signing autographs and presenting the school with one of his shirts.

Student Euan Pollock, who has just signed for Bournemouth FC, received the shirt on behalf of the school.

DOMINIC taught some new tricks to members of the Beaminster FC FUNatics

A spokesperson at the school said: "We would like to thank Dom for taking the time to come in and offer such great advice and wish him all the very best for the next season where hopefully he can make the breakthrough we all think he deserves."

Dominic also took the opportunity to join in with a Beaminster FC FUNatics session - for children aged three and a half to five-years-old – and taught them some new tricks to try.

Full house at Barnardo's fashion and flower event

BRIDPORT Town Hall was full to capacity for the sold out Fashion and Flowers Through the Ages event last month.

Organised by members of the Bridport committee of Barnardo's, the evening on Friday May 29th included a fashion show of costumes of the six decades from the First World War to the 60s, presented by local costume enthusiast Terri Weller.

She gave a humorous dialogue throughout as her models displayed each outfit.

Jean Humphries, one of the organisers of the event, said: "It is great PR for Barnardo's and we completely sold out.

"The atmosphere was electric and people were singing along to the songs, particularly the 60s ones – it was very well received."

The hall was also decorated with six mannequins, each dressed in a wedding outfit from a different decade and accompanied by floral displays created by members of the West Dorset Flower Club, which visitors could see during the coffee morning on Saturday, May 30th.

The event raised over £1,000 for Barnardo's.

Barnardo's is a children's charity that wants to transform the lives of the UK's most vulnerable children through campaigning for better childcare policy and championing the rights of every child.

Boost for Bridport cancer support charity

by Lottie Welch
lottie@pemedia.co.uk

LOCAL fundraiser Roz Copson has raised hundreds of pounds for a cancer support charity in Bridport.

Roz presented members of The Living Tree with £625, money she had raised from a sponsored event in which she swam 10 lengths and spent an hour on a rowing machine.

Roz said: "Local people are so generous and even businesses put out sponsor forms for me.

"Bridport Leisure Centre have been absolutely brilliant and really pulled out all the stops.

"I see the hard work the helpers put in to create this wonderful group for people, they work so hard, never complain and they are amazing people.

"I am coming to an end of doing things for mental health, after 30 to 35 years, and this is a new challenge.

"I would really like to do more for this group and if anyone comes up with suggestions I will see if I can do them."

The donation will be used for projects and activities for users of the support group.

Dr Jo Cotton, one of the founding members of The Living Tree, said: "An enormous thank you to Roz on behalf of everyone at The Living Tree as this has come as a complete surprise.

"This is incredibly kind and generous of Roz as I know how hard she works for charities and what she did was a huge challenge for her.

"One of the things we may put the money towards is 'Sue's Splash Fund' which was recently set up in memory of one of our members who died last December.

"She had always been a keen swimmer and we are looking at ways to help people who have cancer access swimming either on a one-to-one basis or through our 'Stepping Out' project."

The Living Tree is a self-help support group for people who have experienced cancer and for their families and carers.

They meet on Friday afternoons between 2pm and 4.30pm at the Friends meeting House on South Street.

Sherborne Turf

ESTABLISHED for over 40 years, Sherborne Turf is situated in the picturesque village of Trent in Dorset, where we have around 150 acres of quality farmland dedicated to the production of our Trent Turf. Grown without netting, we use a blend of grasses developed over the years that will knit together to form a firm base, and leave our turf in the ground for 18 months before harvesting. It is then freshly cut to order and delivered using our own vehicles. While the trade standard for delivery is 'kerb-side', we realise that this is not always practical for our customers, and so our experienced drivers always endeavour to place the items as conveniently as possible for you, a service which is often not provided by other companies.

Although our core business is turf production, we also supply a full range of locally sourced topsoil, compost, bark and mulch. Other essential garden items include fertiliser, irrigation equipment, landscape accessories, and a full range of seed mixes to grow wildflowers and grasses for companion sowing.

Our delivery vehicles include an artic with removable forklift, a 6-wheel rigid crane lorry, and a pick up truck with trailer. We also have access to a wide range of vehicles for bulk loads of topsoil, compost and bark.

All of the staff here at Sherborne Turf have experience of the products we sell, and are happy to discuss any aspect of your garden project. Our website www.sherborneturf.co.uk contains detailed information, practical advice, and even has an interactive calculator. We are also on Facebook and Twitter, or why not give us a call on 01935 850388.

Scent-Sational Summer Blooms

By Hannah Stephenson, Press Association

Stepping out onto the patio to be engulfed in waves of different fragrances is one of the most glorious sensations of summer.

Of course, there are the obvious candidates among the annuals - pots of night-scented stocks, traditional nicotiana (tobacco plants), vanilla-scented heliotrope with its violet or white blooms, blue-vein surfinia and night phlox.

For tall accents, plant old-fashioned highly scented varieties of sweet pea, Lathyrus odoratus, in a deep pot to climb a wigwam of bamboo canes and provide fantastic scented blooms for cut flowers, so you can have fragrance inside and out. You need to cut sweet pea flowers regularly to keep them coming, or they will just set seed, which tells the plant the flowering period's over.

All can be planted in pots to waft their delicious aromas around the patio for you and your guests to inhale, but if you have beds or borders close by, you can also make the most of those with more permanent plantings.

Make a low border out of dwarf lavenders such as 'Munstead', whose purple flowers will be a magnet to bees and will keep narrow beds looking neat. They're easy to maintain and should flower throughout summer. Just prune them after flowering to keep them tidy, but don't cut back into old wood or they won't recover.

Among my favourite shrubs is mock orange (Philadelphus), which, although not a classic climber, will grow up against trellis and fences, producing delicate white flowers in early summer which should fill even a large garden with fragrance.

This deciduous shrub looks lovely in the border, used in groups as screening or simply as a stand-alone specimen plant. It even makes excellent cut flowers indoors.

Roses can also add scent to a patio, although if you want to put them in a pot, make it a big one, as their roots like to spread out. Alternatively, plant roses in a bed near the patio. You can't go far wrong with David Austin English Roses such as the deep pink Gertrude Jekyll, or try a new pure white variety, Desdemona (www.davidaustinroses.co.uk).

Honeysuckle and jasmine can also be grown to climb up trellis or create colour and fragrance trained on pergolas and arbours or around garden seating areas.

When planting, consider where you are going to put your scented specimens. It's no use planting a rose at the end of your garden if the only time you're ever going to sniff it is when you're weeding that area.

Take into account where you're likely to be seated at particular times of day too, and consider plant height. It may be that simply securing a couple of pots at nose height on your outside wall, filled with aromatic plants, works best.

Fragrant bulbs, such as lilies, freesias and some begonias including Begonia 'Fragrant Falls Improved', can also be grown in pots.

Of course, fragrance isn't limited to flowers. Scented leaf geraniums, fragrant-leaved herbs, like thyme and mint, and shrubs including cotton lavender (Santolina) and myrtle, all give off rich fragrances. Plant shrubs with aromatic foliage close to a path or seating area in full sun.

Ground-hugging thymes can be planted in cracks between paving; when lightly crushed underfoot their scent will be released. Brushing against aromatic leaves also releases their fragrance, while light rain can also bring out the scent of some shrubs.

BEST OF THE BUNCH - Astrantia

This reliable, easy-to-grow perennial with deeply lobed leaves produces long stems of pink flowerheads in summer. They may not be the focal point of the mixed border but they are a great supporting cast, growing to around 60cm, with their pincushion flowerheads. Good varieties include A. 'Hadspen Blood', which produces loose heads of dark red flowers in summer, and A. major 'Shaggy', with its clusters of tiny cream flowers surrounded by green-tipped white bracts. Plant in moist, well-drained soil and lift and divide in autumn or spring.

RONNIE JONES QUARTET AT JAZZ CAFÉ

THE RONNIE Jones Quartet will be appearing at the Bridport Jazz Café on Friday, June 19th.

The Quartet approach their music with a combination of vigour and subtlety, performing tasteful reworkings of some of the best music that the jazz repertoire has to offer, from percussion-fuelled Latin to ballads as soft as a lullaby, bringing out the inherent tension and emotion in the pieces.

Drummer and bandleader Ronnie Jones has performed at the dizzy heights of the Welsh National Opera House, and he is joined by Gary Bayley on saxophone, Joss Kidd on guitar and David George on the bass. The band has been a hit at jazz festivals including Teignmouth and London.

The musicians in Ronnie's quartet are all experienced players and have appeared everywhere from The Welsh Proms to the Teignmouth Jazz Festival.

Ronnie first started playing jazz whilst studying at Cardiff University. It was here that he also first appeared as a Latin percussionist, regularly performing to hundreds of people with funk band Planet Janet. The band went on to play at high profile clubs on the jazz circuit such as Jagz in Ascot. Ronnie still plays with some of the musicians from his student days, joining them to appear at The Welsh Proms in a new project called Kookamunga last summer.

After university, music took a back seat in Ronnie's life for a few years as he devoted more of his time to his career as a broadcast journalist; but after moving from London to Devon in 2005, Ronnie refocused on his music and specifically his jazz drumming and immersed himself in the local jazz scene.

Ronnie is now an in demand drummer and percussionist and has played with some of the top jazz musicians in the South West including several appearances at the Teignmouth Jazz Festival and at Exeter's Vibraphonic Festival (where he appeared with the Mike Westbrook Big Band).

The Ronnie Jones Quartet

Most recently Ronnie has been performing across Devon with Exeter saxophonist Pete Canter's new Lightfight project and enjoying the novel experience of playing drums and percussion, at the same time. He liked it so much he'll be bringing his bongos to Bridport!

Saxophonist Gary Bayley learned his craft in the Southampton big-bands and from the musicians of the trans-Atlantic liners passing between New York and London. From jazz he moved into pop, playing with many international artists when he became the house saxophonist for the Mecca and Top Rank venues. Gary toured with several acclaimed funk bands before returning to jazz by blitzing the major festivals in a manner that brought him to the attention of jazz journals, national newspapers, and the BBC.

Bassist David George discovered his musical vocation after picking up an upright bass for the first time at a Dartington Hall summer school. Gaining a jazz education at the now legendary workshops run by Totnes Jazz Collective, he went on to play regularly at the Collective's gigs and with groups convened by several of its members including Lewis Riley and Sam Richards.

Guitarist Joss Kidd was born in a small town on the west coast of Scotland and moved to Glasgow at an early age. It was here that Joss started to take an interest in jazz, becoming involved with jazz workshops and big band at the Glasgow Arts Centre and performing with the National Youth Jazz Orchestra of Scotland.

Aged seventeen Joss moved to London to study Jazz at university. He was taught harmony and theory by the likes of Pete Churchill (Jazz Education award 2007) and Nikki Iles (Jazz Education award nominee 2007 & 2009) had guitar tuition under the guidance of multi-instrumentalist Stuart Hall and guitarist Phil Robson (Winner of 'Best Jazz musician of the Year' in 2009) and developed his performance skills under founding member of Loose Tubes and jazz educator, trumpeter Chris Bachelor.

The Ronnie Jones Quartet play at the Jazz Café at Bridport Arts Centre, South Street on Friday, June 19th at 8pm. Tickets are £10, available from www.bridport-arts.com or call 01308 424204.

DUOTONE AT DORCHESTER CORN EXCHANGE

IT IS rare these days to find a sound that is so unique it could be considered uncategorisable, and it could be argued Duotone fit that bill perfectly. Dorchester Arts are keen to welcome this much-publicised new music talent to the Corn Exchange on Friday, June 12th.

Duotone is the name under which Barney Morse-Brown (cellist for multi platinum artist Birdy, the Imagined Village & Chris Wood's, Handmade Life) writes and performs his own contemporary acoustic songs. He loops guitars and cellos, percussion and voices to create ethereal sound-scapes around which to weave his poignant lyrics.

Following some hugely successful festival appearances at End Of The Road Festival and Green Man two name but two – Duotone has become a popular live booking through-out the UK – mesmerising audiences all around the country with his very unique shows, breathlessly moving from riotous energy – all the way down to the most delicate and heartfelt moments of beauty and intimacy. Barney possess a unique quality that will one minute have a crowd on their feet, seconds later – the audience will wait, held by the moment – waiting for a pin to drop.

Coming from a musical family of seven children, Barney's passion for performance was established early on. Studying at The Royal Welsh College of Music & Drama, he was awarded a scholarship to study Baroque cello at The Royal College Of Music.

Duotone will be supported by The White Bicycles on the night – this indie/electro outfit have gained a local following from their last two visits to Dorchester with Saturday Sun and Lily and Meg, which promises to be the perfect introduction to a sublime night of music.

Duotone plus The White Bicycles will perform at Dorchester Corn Exchange on Friday, June 12th at 8pm. For ticket call Dorchester Corn Exchange Box Office 01305 266 926 or visit www.dorchesterarts.org.uk

This week's new cinema

JURASSIC WORLD 12A
TWENTY-TWO years after the events of Jurassic Park, Isla Nublar now features a fully functioning dinosaur theme park, Jurassic World, as originally envisioned by John Hammond. After 10 years of operation and visitor rates declining, in order to fulfill a corporate mandate, a new attraction is created to re-spark visitor's interest, which backfires horribly.
Stars Chris Pratt, Bryce Dallas Howard and Ty Simpkins.

LONDON ROAD 15
LONDON Road documents the events of 2006, when the quiet rural town of Ipswich was shattered by the discovery of the bodies of five women. The residents of London Road had struggled for years with frequent soliciting and kerb-crawling on their street. When a local resident was charged and then convicted of the murders, the community grappled with what it meant to be at the epicentre of this tragedy.
Stars Tom Hardy, Olivia Colman and Kate Fleetwood.

QUEEN AND COUNTRY 15
IN THIS sequel to Hope and Glory (1987), Bill Rohan has grown up and is drafted into the army, where he and his eccentric best mate, Percy, battle their snooty superiors on the base and look for love in town.
Stars Callum Turner, Caleb Landry Jones and Pat Shortt.

Duck race again makes a splash for music festival

ONE thousand ducks helped swell the funds of the Jurassic Fields Music Festival when they made a dash down the River Brit on Bank Holiday Sunday.

The race from the bridge leading to AmSafe in St Swithuns Road to the bridge leading into the beer garden at The Tanners helped raised £1300 towards the cost of funding the second annual festival to be held on July 11th at Asker Meadows.

After the race the winners and losers together with a large crowd of supporters celebrated or commiserated with a barbecue, whilst they listened to Mutter Slater and Clive, and Martin Davies of Shelby's Elbows perform.

Dave Horwood's quacker snatched victory to earn him the £250 first prize. Litton Cheney's John Mulhall collected the second prize of £100 and the duck sponsored by Rebecca Dawe earned her third prize of £50.

The festival is a not-for profit community event that also includes a comedy stage where a number of young musicians will also be playing, and there will be a number of attractions for children to enjoy.

Tickets can be purchased from a number of Tourist Information Centres or call the hotline on 01308 424901 or visit the website at www.jurassicfields.com

The complete works of Shakespeare - Reduced!

AN IRREVERENT, fast-paced romp through the Bard's plays, The Complete Works of William Shakespeare (abridged) was London's longest-running comedy having clocked a very palpable nine years in London's West End at the Criterion Theatre!

Now you can join these madcap men in tights as they weave their wicked way through all of Shakespeare's Comedies, Histories and Tragedies in one wild ride that will leave you breathless and helpless with laughter.

The Reduced Shakespeare Company is a three-man comedy troupe that takes long, serious subjects and reduces them to short, sharp comedies.

The company's first three shows, The Complete Works of William Shakespeare (abridged), The Complete History of America (abridged) and The Bible: The Complete Word of God (abridged) enjoyed a nine-year run at the Criterion Theatre in Piccadilly Circus. Not only were they London's longest-running comedies, but at one point the Reduced Shakespeare Company had more shows running in the West End than Andrew Lloyd Webber. Some of them were funnier too…

Warning! This show is a high-speed roller-coaster type condensation of all of Shakespeare's plays, and is not recommended for people with heart ailments, bladder problems, inner-ear disorders, outer-ear disorders, Shakespearean scholars, degrees in Elizabethan history and/or people inclined to motion sickness. The RSC cannot be held responsible for expectant mothers!

The 39th Annual West Dorset Vintage Rally at West Bay, Bridport

THE West Dorset Vintage Tractor & Stationary engine Club would be delighted to welcome everybody to their 39th Annual Rally at West Bay Road, Bridport, next weekend. The club committee has spent many hours during the last six months preparing this years' event, which they hope all exhibitors and visitors enjoy.

Inside the marquee and stalls around the field, you will see craft displays, model makers, and collections of all sorts of unusual items to bring back the nostalgia. The market stalls will show you thousands of bargains of useful and practical items, and exhibitors will welcome your interest in their particular items. Their weekend will be all the more enjoyable if visitors stop for a yarn and reminisce about bygone days. They might even prompt you to get involved in some way.

This year there is a much bigger display section, with more countryside demonstrations than ever before and lots of children's entertainment. There will also be a live radio broadcast from the Rally on Saturday as well as the auction.

As a result of some very successful rallies in recent years, the club has been able to donate over £70,000 to local charities and community projects. This is only possible by attracting local residents and holidaymakers alike to spend a few hours at the rally. This year Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance representatives will be at the rally to receive the proceeds from the club's annual autumn ploughing match.

The committee would like to take this opportunity to thank everybody involved in making the rally a thoroughly enjoyable event. The landowners, exhibitors, stallholders, advertisers and the many helpers make this event possible. Thanks also goes to the British Red Cross and Bridport Sea Cadets.

The West Dorset Vintage Tractor & Stationary engine Club Limited is a very friendly organisation of about 450 members (not all in Dorset) who enjoy a variety of activities and social events. Club meetings are held on the 2nd Friday of each month at 8pm (no meetings in June, July, August & December) at The Colliton Club, County hall, Dorchester.

New members are always very welcome – become a member at the club stand in the marquee or call 07918 961095

Asking for It

TAKING to the stage in clinging dresses and heavy make up, dance duo Pinch are preparing to ask Arts Centre audiences 'Should women be judged on the way that they choose to present themselves?'

Asking For It' looks at what it means to come into your fullest potential. Keen to get people talking about private and public worlds of sexual expression, Pinch's latest work explores the phrase 'asking for it' through dance theatre with a healthy dose of humour.

Examining how our relationship to our sexuality impacts on the way people treat themselves and each other. They are interested in freedom. How can we genuinely enable the greatest freedom for one another in this world? What are the obstacles to freedom?

Why are the choices around our sexual expression so polarised? Where is the middle ground between the pole dancing, twerking music videos and the hurried shufflings under the covers?

Drawing from their own experiences they question what a world would look like where sexual expression is not experienced as either taboo or devious but where it's power is integrated into our everyday life and dealt with consciously, rather than shamed or fetishized.

Addressing this Pinch dancers Hannah Kew and Isabelle Cressy said: "The show's called Asking for It and is an attempt to explode that phrase and examine what it actually means. We have approached the piece as a discussion of what judgement is and where it comes from. We look at judgement of self and others and the social, cultural and even economic structures that support it and allow it to thrive. We're essentially trying to expose the many contradictions that face people today – especially younger people and primarily as women – when it comes to our pursuit of identity and our freedom of choice"

'Asking For It' will be performed by Pinch on Saturday, June 13th, 8pm, at Bridport Arts Centre. Tickets are available from Bridport Arts Centre's Box Office 0138 424204 or online at www.bridport-arts.com

New Seat Ibiza To Make UK Debut

THE New Ibiza is set to be a star of this year's Goodwood Festival of Speed, having been lined up as the centrepiece of SEAT's stand at the four-day festival (25 to 28 June), fresh from its recent world premiere at the Barcelona motor show.

The Goodwood crowds will have the first opportunity to get up close and personal with the sporty marque's iconic supermini – which has amassed more than five million sales over the last 30 years. Set for showroom launch in September, the new model has been comprehensively updated to make it even more desirable, boasting enhanced performance and efficiency, improved dynamics and innovative technology. One of its most headline-grabbing features being its seamless connectivity when on the move, in part thanks to the Spanish brand's recent tie-up with SAMSUNG.

Sharing the limelight with the New Ibiza will be several of the latest additions to SEAT's UK line-up, including the scorching Leon ST CUPRA 280, the car that's adding unprecedented pulse-racing performance to the compact estate car market, and the Leon X-PERIENCE, which brings genuine all-road capability to the range for the first time.

SEAT will also be adding to the Festival's speed and spectacle with the 330PS Leon Cup Racer, in endurance specification, attacking the famous Goodwood Hill course. Fresh from the latest round in this year's extended, seven-race SEAT Leon Eurocup series, the track-bred Leon will give a taste of the handling and performance that's in the brand's blood-line. At the wheel will be Martin Byford, a past winner in the SEAT CUPRA Cup. A fire-breathing Leon ST CUPRA 280 fitted with a Black Sub8 Performance Pack will also be zipping up the hill in the 'First Glance' category.

Under its strapline, 'Technology to Enjoy' visitors young and old will be able to pit their wits against each other on two Leon Cup Racer simulators on the SEAT stand. The fastest time on each day securing the winners exclusive SEAT goodies. Topping off its display of motorsport passion will be virtual reality headsets showcasing the brand's success at the Nürburgring Nordschleife track, or as it is more commonly known, "The Green Hell". There will also be a thrice-daily chance for stand visitors to soak up the event in exclusive surroundings, through a VIP upgrade competition, giving them access to the SEAT hospitality balcony.

SEAT's strong Moving Motor Show line-up will include the fashionable Mii by MANGO and five Leons, such as the CUPRA 280 in 5-door and ST guise, plus the four-wheel-drive X-PERIENCE. A New Ibiza will also be on show throughout the four-day motoring event.

Commenting on its ambitious plans for this year's high-octane event, SEAT UK's Chris Stevens, Head of Marketing, said, "We're delighted to be a part of arguably the country's largest and most engaging celebration of cars and motorsport. For the New Ibiza to be taking its show bow at this year's event is a real coup for us, three months ahead of it hitting UK showrooms, and I'm sure that the cars and activities we've lined up will not just highlight the breadth and attractiveness of our cars, but also, the substance which underlines our Barcelona style."

Success Saluted With Latest Peugeot Sport Models

PEUGEOT has an extensive and celebrated history, producing vehicles since 1890 with more than 65 million built. It won the first-ever recorded motor sport event in 1894 to establish a reputation for durability and efficiency. Now, more than a century later for the 2015 Goodwood Festival of Speed, Peugeot is planning a display that will give visitors plenty to experience while demonstrating how the company's sporting achievements have led to the high-performing and efficient road cars of today.

At the Goodwood Moving Motor Show (Thursday, 25th June) Peugeot will assemble its latest product developments and visitors can experience the new 208 'GTi by Peugeot Sport', the 308 'GT Line' powered by the accomplished 3-cylinder PureTech petrol engine and the new performance-focused 308 GT. A display of the latest Peugeot Sport models is also planned and the awesome 500hp 308 R HYbrid makes its European debut as a glimpse into the future. If that isn't enough there will be another 308 world premiere.*

On the main stand, located centrally among manufacturer showrooms, Peugeot has on display a highlight of models from its illustrious past, present and future. Featuring is the all-conquering 205 T16 that celebrates winning the World Rally Championship 30-years ago. Modern-day competition vehicles displayed include the 2008 DKR Dakar-endurance with the 208 WRX (FIA World RallyX) car.

The 2015 range of Peugeot cars is on display and includes performance-inspired products like the 308 GT, new 208 'GTi by Peugeot Sport'. Also of interest on the main stand for gamers is the chance to compete on the just launched Grand Turismo 6 Peugeot Vision GT.

For the Goodwood Festival of Speed (Friday to Sunday, 26th – 28th June) three significant cars are running up the famous hill climb. One is currently secret*. Another is the 205 T16 celebrating its WRC success 30 years ago. The third is the 404 Diesel which 50 years ago this month set 40 world endurance records at the Montlhéry circuit near Paris and in the process set about establishing Peugeot as the defined producer of durable and efficient compact diesel engine cars.

Edwards Cup

THE draw for next season's Edwards Charity Cup was made at the Quarterly Progress Meeting of the Bridport Football Partnership held recently.

The competition, special to West Dorset clubs, was reintroduced by the BFP in recent seasons and involves local clubs in a series of knockout matches culminating in the semi-finals and final being played at St Mary's Field.

Last season's winners Bridport Youth were given a bye to the semi final whilst in the quarter-finals Charmouth will host Beaminster, Lyme Regis travel to Netherbury, and Pymore are at home to Waytown Hounds.

Local sailors enjoy wonderful conditions

SAILED over two days in a range of sea and wind conditions, Merlins, Albacores and Larks dinghy classes competed at Lyme Regis in a five race series, part of their national circuits of events writes Sally Holman.

Crews hoping for excellent sailing were not disappointed as Saturday presented challenging Force 4-5 SW winds, a big swell and breaking waves, the fleet of 46 gradually diminishing by race three as fatigue set in.

Overnight leaders in the Merlins were Nick Craig & Tye Daddy from Frencham Pond with three first places.

Local sailors Jon Turner & Richard Parsloe were second, while the only Albacores to finish both races were Metcalf-Smith & Brailsford from Sutton in Ashford followed by Lyme's Commodore Jerry Rook crewed by Shige Takezoe.

Ward & Stewart from Netley, the eventual class winners for the Larks, were lying second.

wind change

On Sunday the northerly winds were less strong but equally testing as they oscillated through 40 degrees, Force 1-3, for the final two races.

Lightweight Lyme crew Dan Alsop & Jennie King improved their position with a second place in race five.

Meanwhile Hufton & Kennedy gained a further first and second with consistent performances in the Larks, Rook and Takezoe coming in third and first Albacores.

Race Officer Tim Parsons said: "It was a fantastic event in excellent conditions, it brought a good number of visitors to Lyme who appreciated our first class sailing waters".

The polished performance of Tim and the Lyme team who ran the open meeting - both on the water and on shore - was highlighted by the visitors' during the closing speeches at the Prizegiving.

LRSC Commodore Jerry Rook, whose wife Pauline presented the prizes, won the Albacore class.

He thanked the visiting sailors, his club teams, the Power Boat Club for co-ordinating operations for their national ski race with the Sailing Club, and the Harbourmaster and staff for essential assistance.

The Regatta is the next big event the club will host, followed from August 8th by the Scorpion National Championships.

Lyme Regis Gig Club

Lyme continue winning ways through Super Vets

LYME Regis Gig Club continued to build on their successful start to this year`s racing season at Salcombe recently, posting some exceptional results.

The day initially looked as though it was going to be a wet turn out, but then broke into a warm and pleasant afternoon, which contributed to an afternoon of excellent racing.

A strong field again meant that all crews had to be at the very top of their game on the challenging waters of the Salcombe Estuary as Lyme's Men's Super Vets proved in the penultimate race of the day when one of their two crews won the race, with the second finishing third.

borrowed boat

Super Vets 1 were in their own home-built boat "Tempest" with a second team using the boat "Henry Smardon" loaned to them from the Brixham Gig Club, and in a field of ten was a chance for the club to increase their score tally over the afternoon.

Both teams pulled through in a fantastic race. The Super Vets 2 team, with some of the crew also having to swap sides to enable a full crew to row, pulled out an early and commanding lead.

They continued to pull away from the rest of the field to take an outstanding victory, whilst credit also goes to the Tempest team who made it across the line in 3rd position.

For the Men`s section, with the strongest crews they have put out this year, all posted their best results of the season so far.

The two crews in the C category, finished 3rd and 7th from 16 boats, whilst the B crew finished in a very impressive 7th from 17 boats behind some of the stronger, more established teams on the South West Peninsula.

The Vets event was a close call in the finishing stages, with Lyme racing two other boats in a battle for third, but they were just pipped at the line, finishing fourth.

Reduced numbers for Lyme's Ladies meant some crew reconfigurations were necessary, with some of them having to row three times in hot conditions on a long course.

That said, they put in a sterling effort to reach the finish line, still with boats behind them.

LRGC would like to thank Brixham Gig club for the loan of their boat, and the organisers for a fantastic event.

Dorset Funeral Plan League Premier Division

Wimborne & Colehill 239-2 beat Dorchester 158-9 by 81 runs

DESPITE defeat Dorchester skipper Simon Mitchem was not too downhearted. Missing some regulars, it was a fairly young side that on the day found Wimborne too good for them.

Mitchem said: "I'm not too downhearted. We played reasonably well and they are a strong side.

"We didn't bowl that badly but they batted sensibly, and at one stage I thought they might get 290, so to restrict them to 239 wasn't too bad on a very good wicket. In reply a few of us made starts but we couldn't get a partnership going.

"On the day they were the better side, but we weren't hammered.

"I'm encouraged by the fact that had we had an ounce of good luck we would have won the previous two games against Sherborne and Poole Town, but sometimes things don't go your way."

Wimborne were invited to bat first, and put on 89 for the first wicket before Colin Randall (36) was caught by Nick Roe of Tom Blair (1-32).

However, Tom Caines dominated the innings, carrying his bat for an unbeaten 120, and with Simon Woodruff (40no) the pair added an unbeaten 104 for the third wicket.

Mitchen 1-22 off 10 overs was the most economic with Sean Fitzgerald taking a turn at bowling to register 1-31.

Marcus Evans (12) and Fitzgerald put on 32 for the first wicket, before Quenton Miller (26) and Fitzgerald (30) took the score to 85, but their dismissals along with Steve Clifford saw them slump to 87-4.

Dan Belt (14) and Mitchem (30) tried to get Dorchester going again, but Harry Beardsley (3-39) and Caines (3-24) picked off the tail as the county town struggled to 158-9.

Weymouth 148 all out lost to Martinstown 151-4 by 6 wickets

WEYMOUTH are still winless this season after a late batting collapse saw them set Martinstown a relatively small target in this local derby.

A determined 40 from Jim Ryall and 40 from Will McKay had seen Weymouth looking well set at 131-4 after superb bowling from Matt Camp and Liam Banfield had given Martinstown the early advantage.

Camp's figures of 3-15 were even more extraordinary in that he only conceded four runs off the bat; the others being wides; whilst Banfield bowled his ten overs straight through taking 3-21, varying his flight and producing a couple of really good arm balls in the spell.

But when McKay and captain Kieron Womble both perished within two runs, the rest quickly followed with Sam Kershaw picking up 2-29 as Weymouth's innings closed at 148 all out.

Martinstown captain Ed Nichols said: "Jim Ryall was playing well and was a big wicket, but to remove Will McKay who was looking threatening and Kieron Womble, who has been in good form was key."

Womble set the field to stifle Martinstown in reply, and they lost Nichols (4) early on and Steve Gerety (13) was run out in a mix-up. The loss of Lee House (15) and Kershaw saw the visitors struggling at 48-4.

However Dave Herbert (59no) and allrounder Banfield (39no) then took the game away from the Seasiders with an unbeaten century stand to clinch victory with a flurry of boundaries with almost seven overs to spare.

"Both Dave and Liam played sensibly and waited for the bad balls."

County Division Two

Cattistock 216-9 lost to Compton House 217-9 by 1 wicket

CATTISTOCK lost a entertaining game that swung back and forth with Compton House reaching their target with two balls to spare.

Winning the toss the hosts lost both openers Jon Legg and Jack Walklett to lbw decisions with 26 on the board, but a stand of 96 between Sam Baker (51) and Billy Walbridge (43) put them back on track.

However, the introduction of Mike Harper, 4-16 from his nine overs, saw Cattistock back in trouble at 133-7.

But a dogged unbeaten 39 from captain Ben Golledge in late stands of 43 with Jacob Berry (17), and 39 with Buddy Langford (16) saw them set a target of 217 for victory.

Despite the absence of three major bowlers in Martin Langford, Liam Toohill and Bradley Damen, Baker (2-46) nabbed the precious wicket of the free scoring Harper to leave Compton House on 36-2.

However an influential inning from Ramak (67), and double figure scores from seven other players saw them edge towards victory.

Things swung back in Cattistock's favour again with the visitors 179-8 in the 37th over, but a late flurry saw Compton edge home with two balls to spare, despite 3-40 from Walbridge.

◆ Billy Walbridge

County Division Three

Ashmore 174-7 beat Beaminster 170-8 by 3 wickets

BEAMINSTER batted first and soon lost opener Rich Runyard for a duck.

The promoted Hugh Rathbone (45) and Adam Herring (16) then rebuilt the innings, and although they found scoring difficult they did not lose their third wicket until the 22nd over with the score on 64.

This sparked a familiar collapse as three more wickets were lost in the next 10 overs.

Batting at five Ross Baker (52 not out) played determinedly to ensure a respectable score was achieved. With Brian Earl (15) and Mark Barber (4) for support, 41 runs were scored in the last four overs as Beaminster's innings closed on a competitive 170-8 from their 45 overs.

Beaminster experimented by opening the bowling with spinner Mark Barber, and this paid dividends as he took a wicket with his first ball.

With seamer's Will Everitt (1-49), Adam Herring (2-36) and Ross Baker (2-26) all claiming early wickets, Ashmore looked in trouble at 51-5. However their middle order remained calm and played confidently to reach their target in the 32nd over.

First team debutant Shane Parker bowled well and took a wicket but it was little consolation as the home team won an exciting contest with three wickets to spare.

Dorchester 2nd 185-3 beat Kingston Lacy 182 all out by 7 wickets

DORCHESTER 2nds appeared to have a game on their hands as openers Dale Coghlan (89) and Nigel Hymas (24) put on 99 for Kingston Lacy's opening stand, but Josh Foot (4-36), Bobby Chawla (3-27) and Habeeb (2-19) ripped them apart to dismiss the visitors for 182 all out.

Although Dorchester lost Foot (5) early on, Chawla (41) and Malcolm Stroudley (71) put the hosts on their way to victory with a second wicket partnership of 109.

With Younus Khan (34no) and Mike Peake (19no) also making light of the visiting attack, Dorchester reached their target with five overs to spare.

Poole Town 3rd 290-2 beat Weymouth 150-5 by 140 runs

WEYMOUTH 2nds dropped to second bottom after Poole Town 3rds overtook them with this comprehensive victory.

The hosts amassed 290 for the loss of just two wickets, a total Weymouth never looked like reaching.

County Division Five

Shaftesbury 161-8 lost to Charlton Down 167-6 by 4 wickets

CHARLTON Down returned to winning ways with an emphatic four wicket victory with nearly eight overs remaining over early league leaders Shaftesbury.

The visitors batted first, and captain Rich Bryant and Dorset Over 50's captain Tom White batted patiently against the accurate bowling of Matt and Dan Stevens.

They reached 81-0 at drinks but the in the very next over a sharp piece of fielding by Nick Voss saw White (39) easily run out.

Javed Gill then produced five fantastic overs, and although unlucky not to take a wicket only conceded 11 runs to heap the pressure on the Shaftesbury batsmen.

Bryant (43) soon followed when Kim Park (1-38) trapped him leg before before a welldrilled throw from the boundary by Sam Roles enabled Rob Deadman to acrobatically run out Chris Pym (9).

Captain Pete Tucker (1-22) then removed Dave Toogood before the introduction of spin from Roles (2-37) and the returning Matt Stevens(2-29) reduced Shaftesbury to 146-8.

It was only the excellent batting from Andy Williams (56 not out), which pushed the score to 161-8.

Charlton Down's innings started briskly with 21 runs coming from the first four overs before Jae Miller miss timed a pull shot to mid on.

However Voss (11) and Cameron Lucas (25) batted intelligently and produced some lovely shots through the cover.

Voss was then bowled by the impressive Mark Lewis, who conceded only 19 runs from his eight overs. Lucas followed shortly afterwards hitting a full toss straight to mid on.

The 44-run partnership between Roles and Matt Stevens showed how intelligent stroke play and running between the wickets can push the run rate along, before the unfortunate Stevens was out when the ball lodged in his pads and adjudged leg before with the score 108-5.

The batting middle order strength of Charlton Down was clear to see when the Shaftesbury change bowlers had no answer to Kim Park and Javed Gill.

Cultured sweeps and cover drives from Park (18) mixed with some lusty blows to the mid off boundary by Gill (27) soon had the scoreboard running freely with the help of some wayward bowling which included 35 wides.

The 50-run partnership came up in only eight overs and the winning runs, with nearly eight overs remaining, confirmed a resounding victory.

Skipper Tucker said:"it was great to see the reaction from the young players following the big defeat last week, and it was so obvious to see how they learned very quickly how to value their wicket.

"The league this season is very competitive with only two points between four teams.

"This type of competition will give great foundations to the young players cricketing experiences rather than struggling at a higher standard where sometimes players love for the game can be affected."

Martinstown 2nd 178-8 lost to Broadstone 3rd 182-7 by 3 wickets

BROADSTONE 3rds leapfrogged opponents Martinstown 2nds as a result of this victory at Ashton Farm.

Martinstown won the toss and decided to bat, but lost Williams caught behind early, before West (29) and Wylie (35) put on a cautious 40 for the second wicket, broken by a run out.

Rob O Brien was bowled for one before skipper Colin Crosthwaite rode his luck to score a half century. Rob Nicholls (21) kept things going, but the innings lacked one extra gear and closed on 178-8.

The Broadstone reply was all about opener B Seymour, and a couple of early edges kept the slip and gully fielders in action, without going to hand.

From then on it was a display of hitting, with three sixes included in his 99 before he slapped a long hop to West.

By the time he was out only 25 were needed which Broadstone made with four overs to spare and three wickets in hand.

County Division Six

Beaminster 2nd 148-9 lost to Stalbridge 3rd149-5 by 5 wickets

BEAMINSTER 2nds captain Justin Gurd felt his side were 50 runs short of a winning score after they were beaten by visiting Stalbridge 3rds.

"Whilst everyone chipped in with runs, I think if we were fifty short of where we should have been against that bowling attack."

Batting first Shaun Annetts (46) and Rob Meech (44) gave Beaminster a good platform with a second wicket partnership, but they only managed 148-9 in their allotted overs.

Pate Bustin pinned Stalbridge back early on with a great spell of 2-6 from eight overs.

But despite Beaminster taking wickets at regular intervals, it appeared that Stalbridge had plenty in the tank as two of their better players Neil Ford (26no) and Ian Moore (23no), batting down the card, saw them home with almost 14 overs to spare.

Sunday Division Three

Portland RT 2nd 107 all out lost to Symene 108-4 by 6 wickets

SYMENE got off the mark with their first win of the season at the fourth attempt with this comfortable win over Portland RT 2nds.

Symene applied pressure from the start of the host's innings with their three young teenagers once again making their mark with some excellent bowling, and it was Luke Robinson (1-16) who made the breakthrough having Lucas (7) caught by Phil Hawkins.

On a green wicket with a breeze to help, the bowlers managed to swing the ball a lot and wickets fell at regular intervals.

Although he did not pick up a wicket, Tom Hughes (0-36) from eight overs was a constant menace whilst George Wyrill (1-14) picked up a wicket. The return of Ollie Lee (2-9 from five overs), having finished his exams, made a big difference, whilst Jon Legg's spin returned 3-6 from four overs. Only opener Ray Emery (27) showed any real resistance.

Legg was also the mainstay of the Symene reply, his timing and alignment impeccable as he carried his bat for an unbeaten 73. He and Nigel Toohill (15) gave the visitors a good start with an opening stand of 58 as Symene reached their target with 12 overs to spare.

Readers Mid-Wessex League Division One

Ilminster 209-5 beat Broadwindsor183 all out

AN explosive start saw the Ilminster openers race to 52 off just five overs before they were pegged back by the fall of a couple of wickets.

However Ian Masters (72) and Luke Dopson (52) saw them push the target past 200 with Murray Legg (2-35) the pick of the Broadwindsor bowlers.

Things looked good for the visitors with Chris Park (67) and Richie Runyard taking the score past three figures in a strong second wicket partnership.

But once they were dismissed no one else could muster a decent score and they fell 26 runs short of their target.

Top batting performances

Jon Legg (Symene) 73no;
Malcolm Stroudley (Dorch 2nd) 71;
Dave Herbert (Martinstown) 59no;
Chris Park (Broadwindsor) 67;
Ross Baker (Beaminster) 52no;
Sam Baker (Cattistock) 51;
Colin Crosthwaite (Martinstn 2nd) 50.

Bees show appreciation for returning Lloyd

LLOYD Green didn't realise what a favourite he was with the players, management and fans at Bridport Football Club until he returned to St Marys Field last September to watch the Bees play Sherborne.

The amiable coach and physio had decided to take time out after a stint with the club at the beginning of 2014, but was so overwhelmed by the welcome of everyone at the ground, he decided to return.

Lyme Regis bowls

That's better!

IT'S been a good week in the league for the men again but, unfortunately, another slip-up for the ladies writes Paul Moffitt.

Lyme 1 continue their winning run with nine points against Wellworthy whilst Lyme 2 followed last week's full house with eight points this week against Bridport.

Unfortunately the Ladies had their second whitewash in in row, coming after such a promising start to the season.

The men were unlucky in the County Cup tie against Poole Park, despite winning three of the four rinks, they trailed behind in overall shots scored.

This was a very good performance by the men who, despite being without several of their first team members, were able to run a Poole Park side sprinkled with Middleton Cup players very close.

In the friendlies, Lyme scraped home by the narrowest of margins away to Topsham, always a tough and popular venue which produced three drawn rinks.

Hosting South Dorset Bowls Association, Lyme went down by 15 shots on a glorious, and welcome, sunny afternoon.

INSIDE: Bridport FC annual presentation night

Outstanding efforts by Barracudas' duo at regional champs

THE first two Bridport Barracudas swimmers toever qualify for the South West Regional Championships took their chance to impress recently with superb performances that helped get them and their club noticed in the region.

◆ TOP COACH: Dan Dew who along with George Wyrill has been invited to the training camp

Henry Wyrill and Nathan Moorey competed at the two day event held over two weekends at at Hengrove in Bristol and Millfield School, and all their hard work saw them produce personal best times in all their races.

Wyrill competed in nine races and narrowly missed reaching the 100m and 200m Backstroke finals where he finished 9th and 10th respectively. His other results were: 50m Backstroke (13th), 200m Breaststroke (17th), 50m Breaststroke (21st), 1500m Freestyle (11th), 100m Freestyle (25th), 50m Freestyle (37th) and 200m Freestyle (22nd).

Moorey's best finish was 12th in his 50m Butterfly, and he also achieved 17th 200m Butterfly, 13th 100m Butterfly and 36th in his 50m Freestyle.

Both boys have worked extremely hard in training and swam with great determination.

It is a huge achievement for both and the Bridport Barracudas as they were competing against some really big clubs from all over the region including Plymouth Leander, Swim Bournemouth and Millfield School.

To do so well is also a reflection on the coaching they have received from head coach Dan Dew, he said: "They were both outstanding in their races, and to get so many high placings was incredible, especially for such a small club."

Wyrill and Dew get county call up

AFTER his achievements at the South West Regional Championships, Henry Wyrill, along with head coach Dan Dew, have been selected to take part in the Dorset Talent ID Camp at the end of June; the first time that a coach and a swimmer from Bridport Barracudas will be going to this camp.

It includes pool sessions and land training for Wyrill and a further insight into coaching for Dew. They are both looking forward to learning new skills over the weekend.
